Debtor(s) : CHAPTER 13

BUSINESS EXAMINATION REPORT

AND NOW, comes Charles J. DeHart, III, Standing Chapter 13 Trustee for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, having performed an examination of the debtor's business submits the following report pursuant to U.S.B.C. 1302(c), 1106(a)(3) and 1106(a)(4):

1. An examination was performed on debtor's business which consisted of an interview with the debtor, a review of documents and information from a Certification of the business debtor, and a comparative analysis between the debtor's Chapter 13 Petition and Schedules and the information provided during the examination.
2. The Certification of Business Debtor is attached hereto and made a part hereof.
3. Debtor has cooperated in providing the information necessary in the completion of this report.
4. Debtor has filed income tax returns as indicated on the Certification. Copies of those returns were provided to the Trustee for review.
5. Proof of insurance including business liability and/or workman's compensation was provided by the debtor to the Trustee for review.
6. Debtor's applicable permits and/or business license are current.
7. Trustee, based upon the above investigation, has not ascertained any fact pertaining to fraud, dishonesty, incompetence, misconduct, mismanagement or irregularity in the management of the affairs of the debtor or to a cause of action available to the estate.

This Business Examination Report is prepared and presented by the Standing Chapter 13 Trustee to the best of his knowledge, information and belief. This report is for informational purposes only and is not an exhaustive financial analysis of the debtor's business. Parties desiring further information should consult their counsel and/or make further inquiry of the debtor.

Respectfully submitted,
